PROSPECTUS FOR 1873.—SIXTH YEAR THE ALDINE,

An illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste. Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when the Aldine assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than double the past year; proving that the America; public appreciate a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the Jumos to devolve any large with the as unfolded by the mouthly sides, which as tonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of the Aldine.

The Aldine will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and greatest general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1873, will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches, apprepriate to the four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April. July, and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873.

Every subscriber to the Aldine, who peys in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. J. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures, entitled "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the Moor," are 14x20 inches—are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $50 per pair, in the art stores. As it is the determination of its conductors to keep the Aldine out of the reach or competition in every department, the chromos will be found ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing free to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of Art; and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for the Aldine itself, the marvel talls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improve, mechanical appliances.
